of all of the dubious incidents of touch i experienced as a child, the medical incident is what confuses me the most.

its is incredibly

and feel in my mind

i cant tell if it was a medical procedure or something more

i remember the lighting &
doctor though.

We were at a medical building for sure

it caused me to limp
and cry

distinct memory
of my asshole
being as tight as a hell like a fist

random phrases that stuck

it hurts

its ok

keep it in

hold
it

i remember trying my hardest to follow the directions and how much

it hurted

im pretty sure it was an enema.

of all
incidents,
the enema
allures
me the most.

asshole is pulsating &
going numb

the one the body won't let go.

i guess because it was the only incident involving penetration.

i didnt realize
everything else
counted until recently

i still dont count it.

it was pretty tame.

i dont want to count it because it was never done to me. they did it because i was cute and soft and loved me and made them feel very good.

it was just a Feature

not
bug

it never actually bothered
me

it kept people
happy

it wasn't a choice

it wasn't a big deal

it was inevitable being what they said i was.

So it
was fine

and already normal

i think the first time i touched more than my clit was when i realized
i liked women

i think i felt my own boobs
and imagined
touching a girls

and kinda understood
the horny
advances of men of my youth

i want to fuck
these with a weiner holy shit

i think its
i wasnt a girl,
either

and that i never felt like this body was my own

ive gotten a lot of compliments recently due to me losing weight from being off my meds.

my hourglass has returned, i look great, theyre jelly

but like ive felt
since i was 17,
id be much nicer
to percieve if a bag was put over my head.

dead or alive, it'd spare both Parties of the misery

of looking into the eyes of a squatter

i try though

to learn

to realize it is some thing that belongs to
me

it's only easy to do if i imagine it's different, though same in essence but

young
again

or with a
dick

those are my true forms nothing like this body

one is not me
